“... the purpose for which mortal men have, from utter nothingness, stepped into the realm of being, is that they may work for the betterment of the world and live together in concord and harmony.”

~ Bahá'u'lláh ~

A cluster-wide gathering to continue the process of re-imagining the Pittsburgh region begun at the conference in late April. It will follow up on the major themes addressed at the conference:

- Bahá'u'lláh's Vision for Humanity
- The Distance Traversed
- Building Vibrant Communities
- Promoting Educational Endeavors
- Engaging in Social Transformation

Consultation, creative problem solving and action design, creative expression, collaborative games, being together and breaking bread ...

The session is designed to engage all age groups. Break out groups by interest will allow for in-depth reflection, thinking and planning.

RSVP is encouraged. Please indicate:

- Type of Potluck Contribution (voluntary)
- Participating children, junior youth and youth
