

Reimagining the Pittsburgh Region

Cluster-wide community reflection series

Date & time:

Saturday October 8, 1:00 – 4:00 p.m.

Location:

Monroeville Community Park West, Pavilion 1
2399 Tilbrook Rd, Monroeville, PA 15146

(In case of inclement weather the gathering will be virtual)

Refreshments: cider & donuts will be provided to celebrate fall!
brown bag picnic foods welcome

what: reflect together on world conference themes

A cluster-wide reflection series to continue the process initiated at our local World Conference in late April of re-imagining the Pittsburgh region. We'll follow up on rich consultation on our common endeavour related to these major conference themes:

- > Bahá'u'lláh's Vision for Humanity
- > The Distance Traversed
- > Building Vibrant Communities in the Pittsburgh Region
- > Promoting Educational Endeavors to Friends and Neighbors
- > Engaging in Social Transformation at the Local Level

why: inspiration for teaching and community building

Join in community consultation and collaborative games for creative design and problem solving to inspire action. Breakout groups of shared interest will allow for in-depth reflection, thinking, planning and learning about building vibrant communities.

who: everyone is invited!

Everyone interested in teaching and community building is welcome to participate. Activities are designed for all age groups.

"A vision of personal and collective transformation occurring simultaneously, founded on study of the Word of God and an appreciation of each person's capacity to become a protagonist in a profound spiritual drama, had given rise to a sense of common endeavour."

~ The Universal House of Justice, Ridván 2021 message to the Bahá'ís of the World

atc@pittsburghbahai.org

www.pittsburghbahai.org

814-360-3955